

How could I continue learning, when staying at home due to Covid-19?

E-learning

The schools may be closed due to the current situation, but learning must continue. A lot of educational activities continue through the internet. The Ministry of Education has started distance learning programs for in-school children of all ages.

In order for you or your children to have access and participate in distance learning activities, it is required:

- To have or create an email account. You can have a Gmail, Yahoo or other free email account in no more than 5 minutes. If you don't know how and you don't have anybody to assist you, you can have some information in English here:

- To ensure good connectivity to the internet. In response to Coronavirus, some telecommunications offer free packages.

For the residents of Open Accommodation Sites, it is important to follow WhatsApp's groups with information for the Site.

Please be patient with the procedure as it is new reality for everyone!

Who could assist me?

If you live in an urban place, get in contact with the school by phone. NGO staff could assist you.

If you live in an Open Accommodation Site, you will be informed by the Site actors and Refugee Education Coordinators.

Use of your personal data

Be ensured that your personal information (emails, names, etc.) will be used by schools only for educational purposes and the smooth operation of the e-learning activities.

Are there any other learning opportunities on internet?

Due to coronavirus there are a lot of learning activities for children and adults online. You could get information from NGOs or other organisations offering Non Formal Education in Open Accommodation Sites and in cities. Please check in their websites, facebook page or other social media.
