

INTERGEN Press Release 5: March 2023

Work on the INTERGEN project has continued in 7 countries of the partnership to produce 4 main results:

- Output 1: The INTERGEN BRIDGE METHOD – a process, rationale & learning framework for job centres, careers guidance centres & adult educators to allow low-skilled adults aged 18-30 & 50+ to work together & learn from each other to develop their competences, knowledge & entrepreneurship.
- Output 2: The INTERGEN BRIDGE PEDAGOGICAL METHODS & TOOLS FOR EDUCATORS based on CoP & peer learning methods to put the INTERGEN BRIDGE METHOD into practice in interesting, innovative ways appropriate to BOTH target groups so as to facilitate mutual respect through effective learning & sharing of ideas. It uses the framework of the INTERGEN BRIDGE METHOD developed in Output 1.
- Output 3: The INTERGEN BRIDGE PEDAGOGICAL LEARNING RESOURCES for younger & older adults features an innovative activity-based methodology in ways appropriate to BOTH target groups, thereby allowing younger & older adult learners to develop key competences, a European identity & social inclusion by combatting age-related discrimination. It uses the INTERGEN BRIDGE PEDAGOGICAL METHODS & TOOLS developed in Output 2 in line with the framework of the INTERGEN BRIDGE METHOD developed in Output 1.
- Output 4: INTERGEN ONLINE TRAINING TUTORIALS to facilitate job-market access for adult learners by showing how to link learning during the INTERGEN programme with Europass CV to best showcase their competences to potential employers & prepare appropriately to improve access the job market.

Testing of the INTERGEN OUTPUTS by external organisations & learners from both generational target groups has just finished THROUGH 7 PILOT STUDIES IN Finland, France, Greece, Iceland, Italy, Latvia & UK. EVALUATION WORKSHOPS took place in each country for educators, stakeholders & representatives of target groups who tested the INTERGEN OUTPUTS. The collected data & feedback was analysed for fine-tuning to further improve quality & impact.

The INTERGEN OUTPUTS will now be evaluated internally by project partners & externally by an independent, Expert Evaluator with corrective measures made as required. The final versions of the 4 outputs will then be published in July 2023.

The INTERGEN FINAL CONFERENCES will take place in In July & August 2023 in each partner organisation country. If you would like attend one of these conferences, please contact the project partners by email, via the website or on social media.
